

Revised: February 15, 2018

Name: coffee_belt

Layer Type: Polygon

Description: Kona Coffee Belt

Source: County of Hawaii, Resolution No. 342 98
Resolution relating to the Kona Coffee Belt in the County of Hawaii

History: Created on April 20, 2006 in ArcView 9.1, SP 1, utilizing ET Geo Tools Extracted the 700' & 2000' contour lines from USGS Snapped polylines to create a "closable area"
Utilizing ET Geo Tools, created polygon from polylines
A buffer area to the North & South was added
Revised February 15, 2018; added LINK field

Attributes: Polygons:

FID	Polygon internal number (generated by program)
SHAPE	Polygon (generated by program)
ID	Internal number (generated by program)
AREA	Calculated GIS Area
GIS_Acres	Calculated GIS Acreage
LINK	Hyperlink feature to scanned document

Contact: County of Hawaii, Data Systems Department
25 Aupuni Street, Room 102, Hilo, HI 96720
(808) 961-8208

* Note: This data layer is intended for planning purposes only and should not be used for boundary interpretations or other spatial analysis beyond the limitations of the data. Data is not described by metes and bounds nor is it parcel-specific. Therefore, overlaying this layer with other data layers may not produce precise results. The GIS Acres is based on the digital map and may not reflect taxable or actual acreage of the Kona Coffee Belt.

Please use caution when viewing this data.